PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Borough Nine Faces Severe Test During Next Three Contests

Davismen Will Meet Brookline, Paoli and Gladwyne in Order

MEDIA DELUGED 24 TO 0

Three wild innings gave Narberth a 24-0 victory over Media A. A. and the Main Line League's scoring record last Saturday. Six runs were scored in the second, seven in the seventh, and eleven in the ninth innings.

Every member of the circuit-leading team made at least one hit and nine of the eleven men who saw action lambasted the ball safely twice or oftener. The total accumulation was thirty hits.

Perhaps it was no way to treat a visiting aggregation but Media, after chasing balls all afternoon Saturday, on Sunday was able to defeat the strong Paoli team, 6-5, so apparently the practice did the Delaware County boys a lot of good.

Walter Masters pitched for the Davismen and allowed only seven bingles, three passes and no runs. He fanned seven of the visitors.

During the week-end Brookline handily won games from Downingtown and Upper Darby and now is just half a game behind the second-place Gladwyne team.

If Narberth can hold its own during the next three contests scheduled, the Davismen should have no difficulty in finishing the season on top. Brookline comes here tomorrow while on Sunday the strong Paoli team will pay a visit to the borough diamond. A week from tomorrow Gladwyne again will play at Narberth.

On Sunday the Davismen journeyed to Atlantic City and defeated the Johnson All Stars, 9-6.

Tuesday night Narberth defeated the Harlem Giants, of Camden, 13-2.

Legion in Recessed Meeting Until 16th

Post Members Considering Ways to Meet Cost of Memorial Grouping

A meeting of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, Narberth, is technically in session for two weeks. At 11 o'clock Monday night it was decided not to adjourn a special meeting called for that evening but to declare a recess until the night of August 16.

The session, patterned in its parliamentary aspects not unlike a New Deal congress, consists of a discussion of ways of meeting the cost of the Community War Memorial dedicated May 31 at the corner of Windsor and Wynnewood avenues, Narberth.

Individual contributions to the amount needed are still being solicited while members of the post are guaranteeing the needed funds while methods of raising the sum are being decided upon.

Vice Commander Walter P. Meisen is the presiding officer and two committees are actively at work upon the problem.

Taxi Driver Under $500 Bail After Wobbly Cab Hits Truck

Edward G. Devanney of West Philadelphia was held under $500 bail for court Monday night by Magistrate Howard Meredith on the charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

Devanney, a driver for the Narberth Taxi Company, crashed his cab into a parked J. J. Whiteside food truck in front of Whiteside's Market, 237 Haverford avenue, at 9:30 Monday morning.

Arrested by Patrolman Thomas W. Merkle, Devanney was taken to the Lower Merion Police Station where the surgeon found him to be under the influence of liquor.

Both machines were damaged but no one was injured.

Girl Breaks Leg at Picnic

Barbara Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Frye, of Wynnedale road, Narberth, will be confined to the Fries' summer cottage at Fairview Lake for the next five weeks, her right leg in a plaster cast.

She broke her leg last Friday while on a picnic with friends in the Pocomos.

Will Sing Leading Role

LUCY MONROE who will take the part of Musetta in "La Boheme" at the Robin Hood Dell Tuesday and Wednesday.

"La Boheme" at Robin Hood Dell Next Week

Opera and Famous Soloists Feature Next to Last Week of Season

The next to the last week of the elaborate summer concerts season in the Robin Hood Dell brings Puccini's delightful opera, "La Boheme," and many other brilliant musical events, including the appearance of Jose Iturbi and his sister, Amparo, together as soloists.

"La Boheme," which was first produced under the direction of Toscanini in 1896, will be given at the Dell on Tuesday and Wednesday with an imposing cast of stellar artists. It will be sung in Italian, with Alexander Smalens conducting.

The principal roles will be taken by Lucy Monroe, who needs no introduction to Dell devotees, having received an ovation at her appearance there last week, as Musetta; Rose Tentoni as Mimì, the flower girl; Armand Tokatyan, star of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who sang one of the leads in "Madame Butterfly" earlier in the season, and in "Carmen" last week, as Rodolfo; Sydney de Vries as Marcello; Louis d'Angelo as Schaunard; Eugene Loewenthal as Colline; Pierino Salvucci as Parpignol; and Pompilio Malatesta in the dual roles as Benoit and Alcindoro.

Jose Iturbi and his sister, Amparo, will appear as soloists on Thursday. This world-famous Spanish pianist-conductor and his noted sister made their American debut together as soloists earlier in the Dell season.

G. O. P. Group Opens County Headquarters

Will Concentrate Efforts to Nominate Four Candidates Who Are Opposed

Chairman Harold C. Pike announced today that the committee in charge of the campaign for the nomination of those designated by the "Sectional Committee" in the Republican Primary will open offices immediately in the Montgomery Arcade, Norristown.

In addition to Mr. Pike the committee members are Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion Republican leader, vice-chairman; Frank W. Shallop, of Trappe, secretary.

They propose to start the campaign for the nomination of their candidates now and will continue till the polls open on September 14.

With their efforts concentrated on four candidates, one of whom Judge J. Burnett Holland, has no opposition, it is felt that they can press forward with vigor from the start.

Efforts will be centered on the nomination of Walter A. Wilson, for prothonotary, Judge Harold G. Knight, for judge of common pleas and Samuel Glass for jury commissioner; all of whom are opposed.

Leniency Plea Wins Freedom

David J. Davidson of North Marston street, Philadelphia, charged with robbing a Narberth store, was placed on probation one year by the Montgomery County Court last Friday when the defendant pleaded that he stole to obtain money to take a trip to Florida for his health.

According to Lieutenant Walter Brown, of the Lower Merion police, Davidson stole $80 from a store operated by the Orange Cleaners and Dyers in Narberth.

Final County-Wide Registration Days at Polling Places August 11 and 12

The last chance to register at local polling places will be next Wednesday and Thursday, August 11 and 12. The hours are from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 P. M. to 10 P. M., Day-light Saving Time.

Registrars will sit at Lower Merion and Narberth polling places on the above dates and during the above hours to enroll all citizens who failed to register either on the June or July registration days.

Registrations made prior to this summer are void. It is necessary to register again under the new law.

While every effort should be made to register as indicated above, there is a further but more inconvenient way of enrolling before the fall primaries and election. The Registration Office at the Court House in Norristown will be open daily from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. until September 1 for those who failed to register last July.

Harry Middleton Pitches Hitless Shutout for Ranger Lodge Peanuts

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of letters from the boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco, Maine.

A run-hit, no-run ball game pitched by Harry Middleton against Camp Kodak outshone all other events during the past week although there were such activities as mountain climbs and deep-sea fishing trips.

Kodak beat the senior ball team 4-1 as Jesse Clausen and Don Smith got the only two hits for the lodge. The scarcity of hits continued on the next day. Len Jones, pitching for Ranger, and the twirler each allowed one solitary blow but bad fielding in the fourth allowed a visiting run to trickle across the plate. A last inning rally was stemmed when Len himself was caught off third base. But Harry Middleton brought a victory to Ranger Lodge almost single handed. He permitted no hits as the peanut team won 5-0 and also pitched a double. Howard Irwin had two safeties and Charlie Dykes laced one for three bases.

A truckload of boys left Thursday for Scotland and points seaward to go on a deep-sea fishing trip. Cliff Harkness landed twelve beauties of varying size and description while Dick Miller, standing right next to him could hook but one. Bob Rowley took runner up honors with eight and Walter Karcher the booby prize by just dangling his line in the water all afternoon. No fishing trip would be a fishing trip without stories about the big ones that got away. Dick Longaker and Boyd Broadhead brought back such tales and each had several affidavits lined up.

Another trip to leave during the week was the Mt. Chocoma climb. This small, but tough ascent was offered in practice for the more strenuous Mt. Washington. Bill Deal, Jack Freeman and Bob Warwick raced a dead heat to the summit. Others to scale the pinnacle included Carroll Laird, Chick Stout and Harley Anders. This trip gives rise to two others that will leave during the ensuing week. A four-day trip will be dispatched over the Presidential Range and the regular two-day Mt. Washington climb will also be made. Downs Longaker, Cliff Roberts and Bill Grugan will lead the former excursion while about twenty-two boys have

Community Club's Travel Club Will End Journeys September 7

The 102 members of the Travel Club of the Narberth Community Library have only six weeks left in which to complete their journey around the world. September 7 will probably be the final date.

Jane Bennett and Donald Pearson of the Public School, and Fred Fisher of Saint Margaret's School finished their journeys in record time and arrived home long before any of their fellow members. Forty-six boys and girls have visited three or more countries. Frances Anderson, Ken Wilson and Evelyn Weaver are expected to complete their trips in the very near future.

It should be appropriate in connection with this last call to Travel Club members, to mention a very interesting display of Japanese articles, lent to the library by courtesy of Mrs. D. M. Blair. The exhibit will be in evidence for another week. In keeping with this, the Fireside Shelf displays books on China and Japan.

Romanian Furnishes Flower, Buys it Back on Birthday

Completed J. Albrecht, florist member of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, found himself in the position of buying back one of his own posies Tuesday.

On each member's birthday Albrecht brings a white carnation to the meeting to be placed in the buttonhole of the eligible member. Tuesday's flower went right back into the nurseryman's lap, upon the payment of one dollar, the birthday tax on each member for the welfare fund.

The meeting, conducted by President William H. Durbin, was devoted to matters of club policy and was featured by short talks by committee members. Those contributing ideas included A. F. W. Vick, James P. Carroll, W. James Drennen and Mr. Albrecht.

Narberth Man Badly Injured in Collision

Merion Couple Hurt in Another Accident in Philadelphia During Week-End

A Narberth man suffered a serious head injury in a crash at Gulph and Ithan avenues, Rosemont, while a Merion woman was hurt in a collision at 53rd and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, last week-end.

The Rosemont crash occurred when a machine driven by H. E. Howell, of Montgomery and Thornbrook avenues, Rosemont, collided with a car operated by Pascal W. Barr, of 237 W. Montgomery avenue, Haverford.

Charles Cliphsham, 47, a salesman, of 552 Brookhurst avenue, Narberth, a passenger in Barr's automobile, was taken to Bryn Mawr Hospital where he was treated for a possible fracture of the skull. Barr was treated for cuts and bruises.

The car operated by Barr is owned by Robert Riethmiller, of 521 Prescott road, Merion Park.

Both drivers will be given a hearing August 9 in the Lower Merion police station, on charges of assault and battery by automobile.

In the Philadelphia crash, Mrs. Mary Karcher, of Heath road, Merion, was held in the Misericordia Hospital with severe lacerations of the face and head and possible internal injuries.

Mrs. Karcher was riding in a car with her husband, Walter, 53, who was treated for a sprained back. A friend, Mrs. Eleanor Beale, 53, of Washington, D. C., received abrasions. William J. Downes, 49, of 1530 Felton street, Philadelphia, driver of the other car, escaped injury.

Milk Truck Helper Killed in Collision

Penn Valley Crash Fatal to Striking Driver on New Job

Clarence Zell, 41, Collingdale, died in Bryn Mawr Hospital Wednesday morning three hours after he was thrown out of a milk truck which had collided with a heavy truck and trailer from York, in Penn Valley.

Zell last Friday went out on strike with other Delchester Farms drivers and obtained a job as helper on a Turner and Westcott dairy truck.

When the milk truck, driven by George L. Chatburn, of North Narberth avenue, Narberth, and the truck and trailer, operated by E. R. Klindinst, of York, collided at Bryn Mawr avenue and Gulph road, Zell was thrown out, striking his head on the roadway. The rear wheel of the milk truck passed over his body.

He was taken to Bryn Mawr Hospital by Sergeant Horatio Wilson, of Lower Merion, while Officers Thomas W. Merkle, of Narberth, and Harry Maxwell, of Lower Merion, investigated the accident.

Chatburn was treated for minor injuries at the hospital.

The freight truck and trailer broke off a telegraph pole and came to a stop on a nearby lawn.

Both drivers were held in $500 bail each to await the action of the coroner.

Board Orders Pool in Wynnewood Closed Because of Pollution

Lower Merion Chemist Finds Gulley Run Still Unclean on Further Examination

INSPECT VACANT LOTS

A swimming pool on the Clothier Estate, Wynnewood, has been closed by the Lower Merion Board of Health because of pollution, it was reported at a meeting of the board Monday night.

The pool, which is located on the property of Walter Clothier, Morris road near Chester road, was used by a large number of boys for bathing purposes.

A sample of the water, analyzed by Dr. David W. Horn, board of health chemist, was reported to be bad. Mrs. Clothier was notified of the board's findings.

The swimming pool at Haverford School was closed when it was found on examination to have a very low chlorine content. Twenty-four hours later another sample was taken which was found to be satisfactory and the pool was reopened.

It was reported that the Gulley Run wading stream at Manayunk road and Bryn Mawr avenue, Penn Valley, is still closed. The stream was placarded last month when investigation revealed that it was polluted by leakage from a sewer in Merion Park. The sewer was leaking into a storm drain which emptied into Gulley Run. It has since been rebuilt by the township.

The health officer, Marvin E. Reynolds, reported that additional samples of water were taken from this source and were also found to be bad.

A total of 34 contagious diseases were reported for the month. These

Cost of Government

Americans must work nearly one full year out of every eight—or about six weeks out of every year—just to pay the cost of operating the Federal Government.

If the extraordinary outlay of the bonus is excluded from the comparison, Federal expenditures now are larger than ever before in peace-time.

These facts are disclosed by official figures on national income and Federal expenditures.

Today the Federal Government spends two dollars for each dollar it spent eight years ago. It spends ten dollars for every dollar it spent a quarter of a century ago.

Mounting governmental costs have put the nation in the red for seven successive years, the longest period, except for the Civil War era, that this country has operated at a deficit.

In 1930 at the beginning of the depression, when the budget was still balanced and before relief demands were shouldered by the Federal Government, $3,882,152,487 was paid out by the Treasury. In 1933 when depression clouds were blackest, $5,042,953,627 was spent, or nearly one-third more. Now, when the national income is approaching prosperity levels, official estimates forecast an outlay of $7,725,515,000, half again as much as was spent at the bottom of the depression and twice as much as in 1930.

Bonus payments—totaling $3,066,157,955 in the last eight years—are excluded from the figures. Debt retirement is included.

Moreover, at the same time, State and local governments have kept up a high rate of spending. Consequently, the total of all governmental expenditures, according to the Twentieth Century Fund, has swelled to seventeen billion dollars annually.

This means that when the local and State government costs are added to the expenditures of the National Government, the average American must work two years out of every eight to pay the cost of Government.

Is there any prospect for a decrease in these outlays? Time alone will tell.

Accident Section of Penna. Vehicle Code

Has Been Extensively Revised, According to Auto Club Official

The section of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code relating to the duty of an operator involved in an accident has been extensively revised, motorists are told by the representative of an automobile club.

"The act," he said, "requires the owner, if present, and the operator involved in an accident to stop, render necessary assistance, disclose his identity and to report the accident to local police and to the Department of Revenue within twenty-four hours, if personal injury occurred or property damage was caused in excess of $50.

"In event the driver is physically unable to identify himself, the other occupants of the car, if any, are required to do so on his behalf, or face prosecution. If the accident involves an unattended vehicle or other property, the motorist is required to make an immediate effort to locate the owner. If unable to locate him, the motorist is required to leave the owner's and operator's name and address in a 'conspicuous place' on the unattended vehicle or property. Furthermore, regardless of the amount of damages, the operator must make a report of the accident to the Department of Revenue within twenty-four hours. Penalties ranging from $25 and costs to $200 and costs are provided for violation.

"There is a provision for designation by the Secretary of Highways of 'No Passing Zones,' and wherever such zones are established, drivers are obliged to stay in line, under penalty of $10 fine and costs. Another offense is created by separation of the old offense of 'overtaking and passing.' There is now a penalty for illegal 'overtaking' and another for illegal 'passing.' A vehicle overtakes another within the meaning of the act when any part of a vehicle approaching from the rear is on a line with any part of the vehicle in front. A vehicle passes another whenever any part of the passing vehicle is ahead of the foremost part of the vehicle being passed. Overtaking and passing are prohibited at any point where the driver's view is obstructed by a curve or at the crest of a hill within a distance of 300 feet; at any place where the driver does not have an 'assured' clear distance ahead; or at intersections and railway grade crossings, unless permitted to do so by a signal or officer."

signed up for the latter.

The inspection this week turned out to be a thriller. Up to the final day four cabins were tied but after the smoke had cleared away cabin 12½ was declared the winner. George Paine, Johnny Stoudt, Dick Miller, Burt Davis, Ted Collins, Bob Warwick and Rolly Young composed the winning team.

By beating the councilors 6-2, the boys evened up the season's baseball series at two games all. A shutout battle for six innings, the councilors' defense collapsed and some timely hitting by Johnny Harvey and Jimmy Dykes allowed the boys to assemble six runs. With only three more encounters possible, the remaining games promise to be hard fought.

Cold and threatening weather forced the water carnival to be featured more by canoe than by swimming races. Buzz Torrey and Gordy Clausen aided materially in leading cabin nine home first in the junior hand paddling while Bill Thomas and Maury Carr guided the members of cabin three to triumph in the peanut division. Other winners included Joe Clausen and Johnny Harvey in the egg race and Walter Karcher in the balloon race.

Five new campers arrived to spend August at Ranger Lodge. John and Ted Rosengarten, Johnny Grellis, Dave Allburger and Paul Monahan swell the number in camp.

"This is My Affair" With Taylor, Stanwyck at Narberth

"This Is My Affair," now at the Narberth, stars Robert Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck and Victor McLaglen in a story of crime and its political alliances at the turn of the century. Music and lyrics are by Gordon and Revel. An added attraction is Walt Disney's "The Worm Turns."

"Slave Ship," Monday and Tuesday, is the story of Warner Baxter's efforts to give up the slave-running trade, with Wallace Beery as the crafty mate who leads the crew in opposition. Elizabeth Allen spends a terrified honeymoon as Baxter's wife and Mickey Rooney is also in the cast. Monday night at 9 is the time for the popular "Play Bonus."

Wednesday (Cash Award Night) Edward Everett Horton will be seen in a laugh-a-minute farce, "Oh, Doctor."

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday the feature will be "Woman Chases Man," in which Miriam Hopkins literally trees Joel McCrea after pursuing him across the continent.

Shaw Festival Closes This Week at Hedgerow

Two Presentations of "Too True to be Good" Will Close Celebration

In Rose Valley, the Hedgerow Theatre is approaching the fourth and final week of its highly successful Fourth Annual Shaw Festival. Crowds are still arriving nightly at the famed playhouse to see the Shaw productions, and it is probable that the close of the Festival will be more glorious than the opening.

The next ten days will be distinguished by two unusual events. First, Hedgerow's 440th performance of Shaw's plays, and secondly two presentations of "Too True to be Good," on Friday and Saturday, the closing nights of the Festival.

As a striking contrast to Mr. Shaw and his plays which have spent the last four weeks in Rose Valley, Hedgerow is announcing the opening of Jean Ferguson Black's "Penny Wise" on August 16th as its 124th production.

The play, a sophisticated comedy emblazoned with all the chintzes and gay colorings of a renovated Connecticut farm-house, was presented in New York this Spring. Its introduction is being looked upon as a timely addition by the Rose Valley audiences, especially since the theatre has played no light comedy for a number of seasons.

Survey and Recommendations of L. M. Planning Commission

GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF THE HIGHWAY PLAN

The principles upon which the highway plan is based may be stated as follows:

1. Through-traffic should be diverted around the township or along its borders wherever traffic convenience and local benefits justify such diversion.

Through-traffic creates problems of danger, congestion and property depreciation. It should not be invited to use roads needed for local shopping, business and pleasure travel. The majority of business men now realize that through-traffic interferes with local trade to the serious disadvantage of both the shoppers and the merchants.

2. Traffic necessarily passing through the township should be concentrated on a few roads, planned in width, grade, and type of paving to facilitate easy, rapid flow and planned in design to avert damage to the values of abutting property.

3. Parallel routes to main arteries should be developed as relief routes for local traffic and to permit communication between local centers without entering through-traffic.

4. Other routes connecting local centers, feeder roads to main arteries and roads of other local importance should be designed of proper width and alignment to serve best their respective purposes.

5. Roads purely residential in character should be designed to prevent their use by through or local traffic as an escape from the necessary traffic regulation of major roads. Truck traffic, except for local delivery purposes, should be prohibited on purely residential roads.

THROUGH HIGHWAYS AND THEIR RELATION TO REGIONAL PLANS

The major traffic flows through the township are those of a suburban character between the central district of Philadelphia and the Main Line suburban area. The existing main arteries for this traffic are Lancaster, Montgomery and City avenues and Haverford road. Lesser arteries are the winding State Highway Route 23, Belmont avenue, Conshohocken State road and a number of the other roads entering the city.

Another important group of through-traffic is from the west to Philadelphia, New Jersey and New York and return. Lancaster and City avenues are the main arteries used. To be considered also is through-traffic north and south by-passing the Philadelphia central district. This travel road, is in Hanover, Pa., where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. J. Conrad.

Miss Emily Dickson Pearce, of Levering Mill road, left Wednesday to spend the remainder of the summer in Ventnor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bertolet, of Trevor lane, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Filemyr, of Philadelphia, will spend this week-end at Camp Nettus in the Poconos, where they will visit their daughters, Miss Betty Calder and Miss Mildred Filemyr.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Milton Croasdale, of Cornell road, recently returned from a several weeks' trip through the South, stopping for brief visits in Atlanta and New Orleans.

They also have had as their guest, Mr. Orin Golding, of La Seira, Texas. Miss Margaret J. Mahon, of Bryn Mawr avenue, has returned from a visit of several weeks in New York and Boston.

Miss Louise Graves and Miss Jean Selby spent Tuesday in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Unger, of Kent road, are spending the week-end at Lenape Village. Their son, Lloyd Unger, Jr., is spending some time at the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowes were dinner guests on Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Urquart at the Delmar-Morris, Germantown.

is tapped from the Chester and Baltimore pikes by Sprout road and Darby road among others. Use is then made of City avenue to reach the New York route or of Spring Mill road to gain the Bethlehem and Easton arteries by way of Norristown.

A map showing the roads carrying through-traffic in and around Lower Merion Township and presenting a plan to provide for better routes as well as increased traffic has been prepared.

Of major importance to the consummation of the plan is the construction of the proposed super-highway from Malvern to Philadelphia on or along the Pennsylvania Railroad low-grade right-of-way along Darby Creek. This proposal appears to be one of distinct feasibility and is in harmony with proposals of the Regional Planning Federation and the Philadelphia City Planning Commission. Such a highway would replace the corresponding portion of Lancaster avenue as a link in the Lincoln highway.

It would carry all through-traffic originating beyond Malvern destined for Philadelphia (and for the north and east until other proposals were completed) and intercept a certain portion of the normal suburban flow on Lancaster avenue. Such a diversion of traffic would allow Lancaster avenue, Haverford road and West Chester pike to better accommodate the ever increasing traffic demands made upon them.

While no portion of this proposed super-highway is in Lower Merion, yet the problems so vitally concern it that the Planning Commission recommends that Lower Merion Township should add all the authority it can muster in support of this proposal.
